Local Jetsetter

was created as a trusted local guide to support our 30A South Walton, Florida beach community and beyond. Since 2012, we have loved sharing our authentic experiences through our roles as a former Walt Disney Co. Cast Member, Travel Agent, Wedding Planner, Photographer, Videographer and Podcast Producer. Currently as Travel Journalists, supporting local while helping our audience travel, eat and live like the locals do is our mission. We are dedicated to help our audience live authentic, intentional lives filled with the best moments of travel and dining. We have been blessed to partner with many small businesses and PR companies to tell real stories and bring further awareness to the best Gulf Coast restaurants, hotels, experiences and events.

Everywhere we go, whether at home or traveling, we seek to support the local culture and what makes the community so special. Time and time again, we find that our genuine, personalized content drives traffic and connects new customers to the companies we feature.

From our family to yours,
